Ethics Guidelines for TAMUT Social Work Advisory Board

Please Agree with the Following Statement *

If appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethical guidelines for advisory board members as adopted by the TAMUT Social Work Advisory Board:

Members of advisory board shall not discuss, advocate or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. Any member who violates this provision may be subject to removal from the board.

If the advisory board member believes he/she has a conflict of interest, then that member should ask the advisory board to be recused from voting. The advisory board member should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board member shall remove themselves from the voting area.
