

SYLLABUS DROP IN

Our campus provides all students online tech support and software training on over 250 applications through Atomic Learning.

As faculty, your primary concern is with the content of your course—not the technology used to facilitate learning. Atomic Learning will help your students master the technology they need to excel, simply let them know Atomic Learning resources are available by dropping a customized version of the text below in your syllabus.

Print Syllabus

Need help with technology?

Training on technology and the effective use of technology may be found at Atomic Learning: www.atomiclearning.com/highed. For login information, please contact (insert contact info).

Helpful training may include:

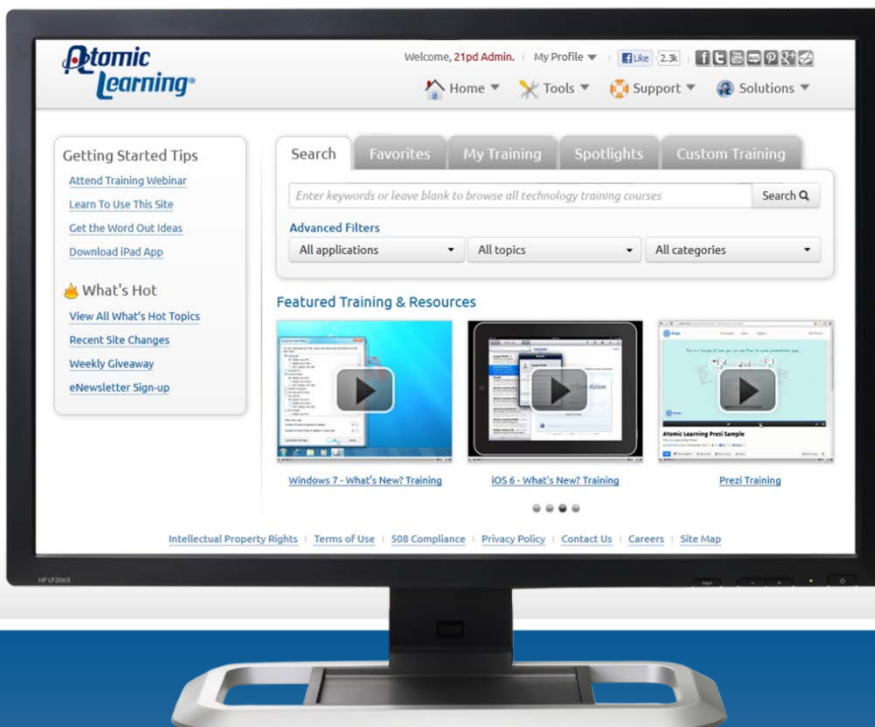

- Effective Presentation Design: www.atomiclearning.com/highed/epd_wkshp
- MLA Research Paper Basics: www.atomiclearning.com/highed/mla_wkshp
- APA (6th Ed.) Research Paper Basics: www.atomiclearning.com/highed/apawkshp
- Avoiding Plagiarism: www.atomiclearning.com/highed/plagiarism_he
- Being an Effective Online Student: www.atomiclearning.com/highed/beos_wkshp
- Effective Online Discussions: www.atomiclearning.com/highed/odis_wkshp
- Microsoft Excel: <http://bit.ly/YZExro>
- Microsoft Word: <http://bit.ly/18i5OYR>

Digital Syllabus

Need help with technology?

Training on technology and the effective use of technology may be found at Atomic Learning. For login information, please contact (insert contact info).

- Effective Presentation Design
- MLA Research Paper Basics
- APA \(6th Ed.\) Research Paper Basics
- Avoiding Plagiarism
- Being an Effective Online Student
- Effective Online Discussions
- Microsoft Excel
- Microsoft Word

QUICK TIP

Have a digital version of this flyer? Simply right click to copy and paste the above text and links into your existing syllabus.